

PLANETARY NEWS

August 2013 Volume 9 Number 8

The Fourth of July found many Club Members lined up to show our patriotism at some of the local 4th of July parades. John Gelfer organized the Shorewood parade, Tim Kirst the Alcott Park Parade and Frank Daily the Brookfield Parade. If you missed this year's parades, mark your calendar for 2018. The 4th parades are excellent chances for new members or members who are relatively unsure of their cars to get them out on the road. A parade like this is an opportunity to try out your car, while having the assistance of other Club Members around should something happen to your car. In fact there were a few 4th problems with members cars and they all ended with only a delay in getting home. A parade generally will only take up a few hours and sometimes there is Ice Cream at the end! Go to page 7, 11, 15 for more pictures.
