NATIONAL BOBBLE HEAD MUSEUM

Bob, Bob, Bob, Bobblehead and that is what 16 members and friend did on Saturday, April 13th. The weather for the day was supposed to be the best day of the weekend, which was windy, cool, sunny and cloudy. These brave souls headed to downtown Milwaukee, not only to view the 6500 Bobble heads on display at the museum, but to have the “T” comradery usually found whenever “T”ers get together.

Take your pick of subjects from sports, politics, cartoon figures, movie heroes, music icons, scary movie figures, commercials, cereals etc. and you found a Bobblehead waiting to see you. It was quite a sight to see and to remember times gone by. The museum has approximately 10,000 bobble heads in inventory, so new displays are being planned for the future.

After about an hour enjoying looking and discussing the bobble heads it was time to head downstairs to Stack'd for, you guessed it, FOOD. No “T” event is a success without food of some sort and (Goto Page 14)
