4th of July Parades

The Greater Milwaukee Model T Club was represented in at least three 4th of July Parades this year. Alcott Park, Brookfield and Shorewood parades. After a cool beginning to summer, this parade day sure warmed up. Tim Kirst hosted the Alcott Park Parade, Dave Hjortnaes hosted the Brookfield Parade and John Gelfer hosted the Shorewood Parade. Dave and Marin Hjortnaes, John Meinholz, Mike Zahorik and a few of John Gelfer's friends showed up at the Gelfer home about noon. John and MaryLou put on a fabulous picnic lunch in their backyard. We all got to know each other prior to the parade. Around two thirty we drove to the line up location to await the start of the parade. Our cars provided rides for local groups. I have two Ladies from the Women's club in my car. Then around three, we were off, down Oakland Avenue. The Parade was not much over a mile long, but we sure felt the heat. Only occasionally was there a cool breeze off Lake Michigan. We ended up at a city park, where in the past there was free ice cream for the parade's, but not this year. Too expensive? Go to P 15.
