Caledonia Heritage Festival

Saturday, September 7th, Jack Gueldenzopf, Duane Nicholson, Mike Zahorik and John & Bunny Boswell, met at the Meadow Restaurant in Franksville. Here we 'tanked up' on some breakfast and conversation prior to driving our cars to the Caledonia Heritage Festival. We have been attending the Caledonia event for a few years. In fact Sharon Venski had one of her tours stop at the park grounds when the old Depot was first moved from Sturtevant. This event again had our Model T's and also a Hupmobile from Racine. We talked with the Hupmobile owner (can't remember his name). Apparently, the bodies of Hupmobile were made in Racine. There were the Civil War guys, their encampments and field artillery. There was a showing of a collection of Civil war and earlier hand guns. Many cap and ball guns a flint lock and a few early cartridge pistols. Very interesting and informative owner was there and could answer most any question. This year there was 15th century Scot encampment. They had a number of axes, swords and spears. An award winning Black Smith was there doing demo's of hammer welding and iron shaping. And of course the Depot, Caboose, Log cabins, Pie auction, food and other sights. We all enjoyed our time at Caledonia. Pictures on Page 15.
