Sunset Playhouse

On Sunday March 1st, the Sunset Playhouse was invaded by members of the Model T club to carry on the winter tradition of taking in a play. As in the past the outing was organized by Mickey Wilkowski with the assistance from Erv. Members attending were Bob and Alice Wirth, Jeff and Denise Schmittinger, Lance Pauley and Chris, Duane and Nita Nicholson, John Merkel and Mae, Mark and Marge Kranz, Maynard and Carol Knudson, Kevin and Sandy Helinski and mom Shirley, Gary and Nancy Gray, John and Marylou Gelfer, Ed Castle and Cathy Dial, Jim and Cheryl Oliva, Frank and Sandy Wilhelm. The play was "Noises Out" a satire comedy about the relationships and interactions of a group of stage actors trying to reproduce a play. There was a lot of door slamming and Oh the Sardines!!!

After the play we adjourned to the Baker's square restaurant near Brookfield square to digest the play, digest some food and enjoy the company of our fellow T club members. After dinner we all agreed it was a great way to spend a Sunday afternoon and that we should do it again next year. Thanks again Mickey for making all the arrangements! More pictures on page 13.

The Editor would like to thank Denise Schmittinger for writing this article and Kevin Helinski for the pictures.
