Neighborhood Tour --- New Berlin

After having been confined to our homes for weeks with daily warnings of the severity of the Covid 19 pandemic, with every event planned being cancelled, watching Harleys driving in groups past our house every weekend, we finally cracked and realized that we needed to get out in the Model T. With everything being closed, there was no place to go, so we decided on a random drive through our city for about an hour.

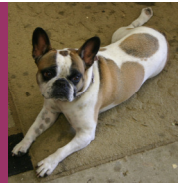

We believed that others in the club must be feeling the same, so we decided to set up a mini tour. We settled on the end of May in the hopes that the weather would be warm and sunny.

Saturday, May 30 was a gorgeous day for a Model T ride. It could have been a few degrees warmer, and the wind could have been a bit lighter, but overall, a gorgeous day.

Seventeen people met at the New Berlin Historical Society parking lot. We had 8 Model T's; (Go to Page 10)
