Sunday Brunch

On a cold Sunday morning, seven of us ventured out for a Sunday Brunch at Maxfield's pancake house on Highway 100 in Milwaukee. We enjoyed Maxfield's pancakes, eggs and bacon, waffles etal. We have met here in prior years and the place was packed on a Sunday morning, but today there were many empty tables. We enjoyed discussing traveling and ocean cruises we did in the past. Talk also included COVID and schooling at home via the computer. We also discussed the many trips that were taken in the past. Recently some of us had warm weather cruises scheduled, but some of those were canceled.

We also had a weekday retiree breakfast at the Forum Restaurant on the corner of Layton Ave and Highway 100. This was another cold morning. Only four of us showed up, but again that did not stop us from having a good time eating and discussing the events of the day and our Club.
