CIVIL WAR MUSEUM

June 3rd the Model T club attended a drive to the Kenosha Civil War Museum. Erv and Mickey Wilkowski put the ride map together and hosted a delicious breakfast. The museum was very interesting displaying the fighting units from Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. After our visit we had lunch at the Bristol 45 restaurant, which was decorated in a 50's diner theme. The food was plentiful and delicious! After lunch we journeyed home.

A few more observations be the Editor. Erv and Mickey led the tour. We traveled the road less traveled and wound through on county roads, eventually ending at the Civil War Museum parking lot in Kenosha. Fun thing happened as we entered the parking lot. I heard some screeching noise. Mark Kranz was driving his
