Anniversary
Extravaganza

PLANETARY

NEWS

Well the 50th Anniversary Extravaganza of the Greater Milwaukee Model T Club has come and gone, but will not be forgotten soon. For those of you that missed this great event, you really missed out, although you can view many pictures and read about our Extravaganza here in these pages and on our website. The website will soon have some video's of the Extravaganza. Many of the usual articles will not appear in this issue as most of the pages will be dedicated to coverage of this event. The Extravaganza Memory book will also be available soon. The memory book will have a number of items concerning our past 50 years, including a number of personal articles written by the membership regarding how they and their cars have fit into our club. The Memory book will also have a number of pictures memorializing our Extravaganza. So, whether you attended the Extravaganza or not, page through the next few pages of this issue and view our website to better remember the Extravaganza. And, if you did miss the Extravaganza, it should only be a another short 50 years to the 100th Anniversary, better fill out that registration form, while it is still fresh in your mind.
