Port Washington Vinery & Lighthouse Tour

Saturday, August 27, Mark & Marge Kranz (modern iron, Ross & Gloria Arnold (Model A Shay), John & Mary Lou Gelfer (1912 touring) and Mike Zahorik (1926 Tudor) met at Ruby Isle in Brookfield. After a little breakfast we left and traveled north to meet up with Bob & Alice Wirth (1914 Touring), Tod & Sharon Wirth (1912 Touring) and Jim & Cheryl Oliva (modern iron) at a gas station near Menomonee Falls. After some discussion about the route we hit the road. We had a little trouble on the way, Bob's car apparently passed a little dirt in the fuel which temporarily stopped the engine. We arrived in Port Washington around 11:30 and met Dave & Jean Perrine (Model A) and Gary & Evelyn Beaupre (new to him 1926 Coupe). We were on our own to walk around town, later pick up lunch and have some wine at the 'Vines to Cellar Winery'. They allowed us to have lunch from the Dockside deli and enjoy some of their fruit wines in their store. After lunch we started the cars to travel to the Port Washington Lighthouse. Gary's new to him car would not start, after a little (Go to Page 9)
