Presidents Dinner

Hello Fellow T 'ers

Well, our 2012 T driving season has come to an end, which also marks my first year as President of the Club. Might I say, it has been a very exciting and very rewarding time for me personally. The Club itself has had many special and unique events and activities, spread throughout this past year for our members to gather, drive our cars and enjoy each others' company.

The President's Dinner on November 3rd at Thunder Bay Restaurant was once again an event for our Club to recognize those members who have taken extra effort and roles to make the Greater Milwaukee Model T Club the fine, energetic and helpful Club that it is. On that date, 34 members, spouses and friends joined together for a wonderful fun time. The delicious buffet food, rich dessert, the cozy room accommodations at Thunder Bay and the (Go to P. 8)
