S Sunday Brunch in Racine

unday, May 20th found a number of Greater Milwaukee Model T'ers out and about for the purpose of a little Model T ride and some brunch at the Charcoal Grill in Racine. Sharon Venski and Tommie, Mike Zahorik and Tim Kirst met at John and Tera Meinholz's home. After some socializing and getting ready, we hit the road and had a leisurely and enjoyable ride south on Wisconsin highway 38. Once past the airport and out of Milwaukee county, this road provided some nice curves and hills. Although there was a threat of rain, the weather was fine, clear and warm. We stopped at Lance and Paula Pauley's home, just north of Highway 20. Here we met the Pauley's and their dogs. After getting to know each other a little we were again off toward the Charcoal Grill for a little Sunday Brunch. After an easy ride just west on Highway 20, we received a warm welcome from the highway sign in front of the Charcoal Grill. Here we met up with Bob and Alice Wirth, who drove modern iron. Inside, we partook in an excellent buffet brunch. There were hand made personal (Go to P. 15)
