Model T's at Whitnall Park

After a stormy night on the eve of Father Day's, a near perfect day presented itself for the Greater Milwaukee Model T Club. John & Tera Meinholz, with Jacob and Emma, joined Sharon Venski and Billy who drove from the south side. Lance & Paula Pauley drove from Racine. Mike & Dan Zahorik, met Dave Hjortnaes at John & Jim

Markel's home. Dave's speedster was chugging along as he arrived at the Markel's. In John's driveway we removed the spark plugs and found that they were carbon fouled. So.... Dave rode with John and Jim in their 1909 touring car. We drove along the Root River Parkway, then down 92nd street to the Boerner Gardens at Whitnall Park. We lined up on the south side of the pavilion. The park moved a number of chairs, tables and a couple of parasols for our comfort. Just to the west of us were two other cars, apparently left (Go to P. 8)
