The Elves and the Shoemaker By Brothers Grimm (1812)

This tale is no.39 of a set of related tales was published by the Brothers Grimm in the first edition of Kinder- und Hausmärchen (1812).

There was once a shoemaker, who worked very hard and was very honest. Still, he could not earn enough to live upon, and at last all he had in the world was gone, save just leather enough to make one pair of shoes. Then he cut his leather out, all ready to make up the next day, meaning to rise early in the morning to his work. His conscience was clear and his heart light amidst all his troubles. So he went peaceably to bed, left all his cares to Heaven, and soon fell asleep. In the morning after he had said his prayers, he sat himself down to his work, Go To page 2
