Sunday Bingo

The weekend of the party started out pretty scary. There were predictions of up to 30" of snow. Then, they reduced the amount of snow to about 7". Thankfully, we woke up Sunday morning to thunderstorms so the party could go on.

About 12:30 guests began arriving with Bingo prizes in hand. Attending were Jim & Julie Radtke, Dave Hjortnaes, Tina Hickman, Jim & Cheryl Oliva, Erv & Mickey Wilkowski with friend of the club Sandy, Jeff & Kathy Clark and first timers Kevin & Sandy Helinski and Smoke & Warner Williams.

We had lots of food, prizes and the ever-popular full-size candy bars. Marge started out calling in standard Bingo fashion, across, down, diagonally or 4 corners. Then we switched to our Model T style of making the letter T to win a Bingo. Mickey wanted to play an upside-down T. Marge demanded that she must play her card upside down and Mickey complied, winning the first Bingo of the game. I guess it pays to be different. Games making an X, I, + (plus sign) and picture frame (or O as Mickey called it) followed.

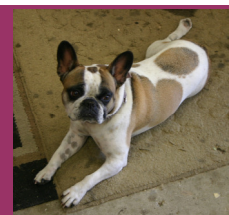

Sandy took over calling and dropping number balls, crawling on the floor to get them from under phonographs. Following Sandy, Mickey took over calling, also dropping a ball or two. It's not T club Bingo unless someone drops a ball or two and has to chase after them. At one point Marge announced that everyone who had not already won a prize should come up and pick a prize. No one goes home without a prize at this Bingo party. Later, Mickey decided to continue the same card until nearly everyone had called Bingo. Everyone else was then invited up to get (Go to Page 8)
